Portable Water Treatment Plants

www.karinawater.com
Quality

- Plants fully manufactured and commissioned at factory
- No on-site assembly or process commissioning required
Portable

- Completely housed inside 6 meter container
- Easily transportable by ship / truck / helicopter
- Suitable for remote locations
- Quick and easy to set up
Certified Drinking Water

- Meets DWSNZ, ADWG, PNGWQS, etc
- Independently verified as meeting DWSNZ (2008)

- ICS is Accredited to ISO 17025
- IANZ (NATA) accredited
- Accredited by NZ Ministry of Health
- Certified by Biosecurity NZ
Automatic Operation

- Requires very low operator supervision
- Process fully automated
- External alarm
Public Water Supplies

Rapid setup plants to provide urgent drinking water

Plants assembled in parallel to provide clean drinking water to mining towns Industrial

Permanent Plants - Drinking water plants to supply certified water to large industrial sites

Remote sites – supplying drinking water during extended plant shutdowns
Mobile Operations / Drilling Camps

Suitable for remote and difficult locations
Miscellaneous Setups

Portable Water Treatment Plant used for gathering accurate data prior to installation of a large municipal water treatment plant.

Food grade water for large farming sites.
Treatment Process

- Oxidation – sodium hypochlorite
- Charge neutralisation – flocculant
- Filtration – filter aid, filter media
Let's raise our glasses to healthy water info@karinawater.com

++64 (6) 765 5976